BENEFITTING ORGANIZATION

DUPAGE COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM

The Museum is the only institution dedicated to the collection, preservation and interpretation of the material culture documenting the history of DuPage County. The building was erected in 1891 by John Quincy Adams in memory of his late wife and was the first public library and cultural center in Wheaton. The building opened as the DuPage County Historical Museum in 1967 and was added to the National Register in 1981.
